

Coro Strandberg, Principal, Strandberg Consulting

Coro Strandberg is President of Strandberg Consulting, a leading sustainability consultant with over 25 years advising companies on how to embed sustainability in their business models. Coro was named the top CSR consultant by the 2015 Clean50 for her leadership and impact in sustainability consulting in Canada. Coro has recently authored a number of publications for the National Zero Waste Council including case studies and a toolkit on circular business models and approaches. She also advises organizations on circular procurement strategies. Coro is a member of the City of Vancouver's Zero Waste Advisory Panel and The Natural Step's Technical Advisory Committee of the Circular Economy Innovation Lab in Ontario.