MEMBERS FORUM
12:45 PM	Discussion: Stemming the Tide on Plastics Waste On the heels of new research confirming the threat of plastics waste in our oceans, the Government of Canada made international news last week with the announcement of the next phase in a plan to achieve zero plastic waste by 2030. With a discussion paper now out for public comment, Canada is one step closer to banning single-use plastic items. On the ground, there are important collaborations involving private and public sectors as well as NGOs and academics to introduce more circularity into the plastics economy. Join us for initial insights by experts and members followed by a moderated discussion. Panelists: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Jacinthe Séguin, Director, Plastics and Marine Litter Division, Environment and Climate Change Canada</li> <li>• Dr. Love Ese Chile, Technical Lead and COO at Regenerative Waste Labs</li> </ul>
